UNI

UNIQUE, UNIFIED & ONE

Uni embodies the next era in Hedgren's renowned crossover bag legacy. The designs are compact in size, lightweight to wear and versatile in style.

The unique one-zip concept allows you to access three compartments and two pockets in one simple movement. A detachable shoulder strap and integrated belt loops let you style your bag in different ways, and RFID protection keeps cards and keys safe from fraud or theft.

This collection follows our new design direction and pays homage to ancient folding techniques, complementing our String and Furo collections. Uni features two recycled fabric variations. For ultimate performance, one variation features the outdoor-ready details from our Comby Performance series, including a high water-repellent coating, coated zipper tape and reflective details.

The other product variation uses the beloved String material. The String collection's AW2025 seasonal colours, Dahlia Red and Black Ink, also feature in this assortment.

STRING

TO FOLD OR NOT TO FOLD, THAT'S THE QUESTION

The art of Origami inspires our String collection. Origami's magical craft of folding takes a simple piece of paper and creates something new, intricate and exciting. This ancient, elegant practice is just as much about expressing emotion as it is about rational engineering.

String translates this ethos into a breathtaking collection of bags for everyday use. Practising the same geometrical design philosophy, cleverly placed folds and compression strings create bags that can expand when needed, with unique, flexible styles that stand out. The soft and textured fabric and touchable rubber details add a tactile dimension, and every bag includes that signature Hedgren functionality that keeps your essentials organised.

String welcomes two new seasonal colours for AW2025. Dahlia Red makes our autumn/winter palette pop with a deep, bold red, and Black Ink offers a tree bark dark brown alternative to classic black.

Building on the collection's success, we've introduced a new laptop backpack with space for a 15" device. This medium-sized, square-shaped day pack has a wide framed opening offering a clear view and easy access to your essentials.

FURO

THE ANCIENT ART OF REFINED FABRIC WRAPPING

Hedgren finds inspiration in times gone but not forgotten and lands far away in the East. In ancient times, Furoshiki was the Japanese cloth wrapping tradition used to pack, store, or transport personal valuables.

Today, people use it to wrap gifts elegantly, respectfully and eco-consciously. This versatile practice adapts to the specific needs of the wrapped and secured object while minimising waste.

Our Furo series translates the Furoshiki values and technique into a minimalist, eco-conscious and lightweight collection of business bags, travel cabin bags, a baby bag and an assortment of small bags for everyday use.

The Furo assortment grows this AW2025 season with two new bags designed for Hedgrenists on the go, plus a new colourway. We introduce Nara, a lightweight, no-nonsense crossover bag with space for your phone and daily essentials. We unveil our Bento rolling tote bag, which fits the strict size requirements of low-cost airlines, including easyJet. The full Furo assortment is now available in Peacoat Blue, a permanent colour that is here to stay.

FIKA

SLOW DOWN AND APPRECIATE THE GOOD THINGS IN LIFE

The literal meaning of the Swedish word ‘Fika’ is coffee. In its broader context, Fika stands for a moment to slow down and appreciate the good things in life.

This sustainable collection of crossover models, handbags, a tote, backpacks, a briefcase and a rolling tote aims to bring peace, quiet and joy to your mind. Soft, rounded edges, minimalistic design and recycled materials pair beautifully with the witty design details of the Fika collection.

Fika offers all the smart functionality you expect from Hedgren. With a characteristic, bumper-shaped front opening for the quick storage of smaller essentials, every bag also comes with a protective RFID pocket, a safety back pocket, an integrated phone pocket and a refined, detachable key hanger to keep you secure and organised. Selected styles offer a removable inside pouch, an A4 volume document holder and a padded laptop and tablet organisation.

Fika evolves for the AW2025 season with the seasonal colour Black Ink being available in all styles, including everyday bags and business bags.
